Membership News

Now that we are in the 2022-2023 fiscal year, it is time to renew your membership! Membership renewals for 2022-2023 are due by June 30th. Given that we have our Quilt Show happening in September and you need to be a member to enter quilts in our show, it is even more important to get your renewals in on time!

There are three ways to renew your $30 annual membership:
1) Send an etransfer to our treasurer via mbqgtreasurer@gmail.com. It is much easier now that it is an automatic deposit so no need for security questions!
2) Pay with cash or cheque at our May 2nd or June 6th meetings.
3) Send a cheque made out to Mahone Bay Quilters Guild to:
Elizabeth Tumblin
116- Highway 331
Pleasantville, NS B0R 1G0

Don't forget to complete our new membership form if you haven't already done so. We need to confirm contact information and get your permission to share member information with other members.

Thanks!
Elizabeth

Last call for Life Members

Our membership renewal period has just begun (deadline for dues payment is June 30, 2022). If you or any member you know will reach her 80th birthday between June 1, 2022 and May 31, 2023. then you are eligible for life member status for the upcoming membership year. If you have not already done so, please advise Elizabeth ( membership@gmail.com) that you qualify.

Program News

Our guild member, Michele Stevens, a professional sail maker, will be doing a demonstration on sail making. It will be so exciting to have an in-person program again.

Coming Soon! - Communication Changes – it all looks fantastic!

Work is underway on exciting changes to the Guild website and to our Facebook page. You'll see a new website in early May. It's still under construction but here's a sneak peek – more to come very soon!

Our new Guild Website!

Like and Follow our new Facebook Page!

The Mahone Bay Quilter's Guild is making use of new functionality available on Facebook to improve how we interact with our guild members and the community. The new Mahone Bay Quilters Guild Facebook Page will be open to the public so they can view our posts, engage with our guild and enable our guild to market our upcoming quilt show. We encourage members to post photos of their latest work, ask questions, read the news from our guild, and see what is new at our local quilt shops.

Please 'like' and 'follow' our brand new and improved Mahone Bay Quilters Guild Facebook Page today!

Current guild members will also be admitted to our new private group that is for members only. You can request to join today by clicking MBQG Members Only Group and selecting 'Join'. This is where you will find posts just for guild members, including meeting and workshop details.

For each new workshop, we will establish a private group for paid participants to exchange photos, ideas, and interact with instructors, etc. Participants will be invited to join these groups when they are set up. The current MBQG Workshop Page will continue to function until June 30th when all workshops and quilt alongs will be completed for this year.

The original Mahone Bay Quilt Guild Group on Facebook will be closed down by June 30th. You will also see notifications on the old Facebook group that we are closing it down with a link to the new page. Facebook is a social media platform to interact and is not meant to be a repository of documents, information, and photos. This type of information is included on our website https://www.mahonebayquiltersguild.com/ or our Flickr site https://www.flickr.com/photos/mbqg/.

Please share the link to our new Mahone Bay Quilters Guild Facebook Page broadly with your friends, neighbours and family and ask them to 'like' and 'follow'. Administrators will be monitoring the Facebook page content and moderate to ensure respectful dialogue.

We would like to thank our current Facebook moderators, Barb Robson, Elizabeth Tumblin, Val Hearder, and Tara Lynas for leading our guild's journey to promote quilting in our area through social media.

No quilter left behind! Our transition team members, Elizabeth Tumblin, Jill Green, and Nina Scott-Stoddard are available if you have questions.

Volunteer of the Year

The May meeting will be your last opportunity to vote in person for our Volunteer of the Year. Marilyn Verburgh will be circulating at the meeting with her ballots, so be sure to grab one and nominate the person you believe has made an outstanding contribution to the Guild this year. Ballots may be submitted anonymously.

If you are unable to attend on May 2nd, we'd still love to hear your opinion. Please Email Marilyn at mverburgh@eastlink.ca. Just tell her the name of the person you are voting for and why you think that person should be honoured. Of course, email submissions are not anonymous. The deadline for submitting a vote by email is May 18, 2022.

The Volunteer award will be presented at our annual meeting on June 6, 2022.

Workshop News

The Peter Byrne workshop was not filled by our members therefore it is now open to non-guild members. If you did not get a chance to sign up there may still be a spot for you, contact Alicia at workshopsMBQG@gmail.com or if you know of a friend who may be interested I have attached a PDF file with the details.

Library News

It was great to see so many members at the April meeting. The library corner was well attended with books coming in and going out. I certainly hope the same thing will happen at the May meeting as this will be your last chance until September to borrow books and magazines. Don't forget, that the library has a collection of rulers that you can borrow too.

There will be no library at the June meeting. However, I will take any overdue books brought back in June.

If there are any new books that you would like to see added to our collection, please email me at judy.ltc@live.ca ltc are my initials. Often the letter 'l' has been put in as a number 1.

Stay Safe

Judy Cooper, librarian

Quilt Show News

The quilt show is well into the planning stages, and we are very excited. Please take the time to read the important details below:

QUILT BOUTIQUE

Every year the Quilt Show Boutique gets better because of your participation, and beautiful work. This year will be no exception! We have made a few changes and clarifications to the boutique guidelines to help provide shoppers with a "I just have to have that" experience. We (Ann & I) will be reviewing these at the May Guild Meeting.

Only members in good standing as of June 30, 2022, are eligible to submit items for sale.

Boutique Guidelines

The boutique has a 20% commission on all goods sold on your behalf, so consider that when pricing your items.

The boutique will accept

1. Quilted, stitched or fibre-based items that are the work of the Guild members. Examples are small baby or lap quilts, bags, pouches, wall hangings, felted objects, thread catchers, novel sewing aids, Christmas ornaments, etc.
2. Bed quilts: please note that due to space issues, bed quilts will be limited to 1 per member, to a maximum of 10 in the boutique. If we have more than 10 members interested in selling bed quilts, we will select by lottery draw. These quilts will be folded so the seller must affix a colour photograph of the full quilt, with dimensions. Please note…. Quilts displayed on the floor may also be for sale, with each member limited to three show entries.
3. Items produced in other materials or media may be made by the Guild member or someone in the member's immediate family. Examples might include painted or metal items or wood products, like seam rippers, buttons, Christmas ornaments, trivets, etc.
4. Fat quarter bundles.
5. Donations (all proceeds going directly to the guild) of any of the above are also gratefully accepted.

Each item must be individually priced, with the price securely attached, by the seller.

Only a limited number of items can be displayed at a given time so please be ready to restock, when your items sell out! We might not have room for storage.

All members submitting items for sale are encouraged to volunteer at least one shift in the boutique. A shift is 2 hours.

The following items will not be carried in the boutique:

1. Used quilting tools; consider a table at a future guild yard sale
2. Books, magazines, patterns; again, consider a table at a future guild yard sale
3. Food items
4. Franchise products like Avon, Watkins, etc.

Acceptance of all items is at the discretion of the Boutique organizers. The quantity of similar items displayed at one time will depend on space availability.

Contact Christine Bell or Ann Phelan should you have questions about items that may not have been captured here.

QUILT SHOW ENTRIES

Finally, it is nearly time for you to enter our next Quilt Show! The entry form is attached to this newsletter in both Word and PDF (fillable). In order to enter, you must be a member of MBQG for the 2022/2023 year with membership paid before June 30th. You may enter up to 3 quilts. Please carefully follow the instructions on the entry form, and send it between June 1 and June 30, with pictures of your quilts, to Leigh McLean at leigh.mc@bellaliant.net

RAFFLE QUILT TICKETS

As the excitement mounts for our 2022 Quilt Show, A World of Colour, we are faced with a unique issue. In the past, the majority of the tickets sold for our raffle quilt have been through the generous efforts of our Guild members. However, our meetings have seen lower in-person attendance. This has made it difficult to provide tickets to our members. We rely on the support of the Members in selling the raffle tickets in order to make the Quilt Show a monetary success.

If you are planning to attend the meeting in May and or June, we will have your tickets available for pickup at the meeting when you sign in.

If you are not attending the meetings, we would suggest that you can pay for your tickets by Etransfer, noting on the transfer in the comments that it is for the raffle quilt tickets. We will then put your ticket stubs into the draw on your behalf. If you have promised or sold tickets to individuals whose names you wish to appear on the stubs, you can email this information to Gail Smith at jsmitha077@yahoo.ca and she can take care of this for you.

If you have a friend that is attending the meeting, you could ask that they pick up the tickets for you or if you belong to a Bee and have members that attend the meetings, this is another option available.

If none of the above works for you, please let Gail Smith know and she may be able to arrange to get the tickets to you in another way.

Volunteers required. We will be out in the community selling tickets for our beautiful raffle quilt over the next few months. We will have a table at Lunenburg Market, Hubbards Market, Giant Tiger Mall in Bridgewater, and Atlantic Superstore in Bridgewater. If you are available to assist for a couple of hours in the selling of these tickets, it would be most appreciated. A signup sheet will be available at the meetings in May and June, or you can contact Gail Smith to let her know which location would work for you. Definitive dates have yet to be set. Thank you in advance.

VOLUNTEERING AT OUR QUILT SHOW

The process of scheduling volunteers to work shifts at the quilt show will begin at the May meeting. There are many "jobs" to be covered, which are described in general below. You'll have a great time seeing other members and hearing the reactions from show attendees. If there is a particular time slot you'd like to cover, please email Tara Lynas at taralynas@yahoo.com, and we will try to accommodate your request.

Please note:

- If you will not be at an in-person meeting in May or June, please contact Tara directly to volunteer for your chosen shift
- If you prefer to work more than 2 hours at a time, please sign up for two consecutive shifts. The two shifts do not have to be the same task.
- Training will be provided to use "Square" for credit/debit payments – it's really easy and we have just purchased new larger scanners
- Schedules in the boutique are being set by Ann Phelan and Christine Bell. They will advise any outstanding staffing needs at September meeting.
- Each member that submits items for sale in the boutique is asked to volunteer for at least one shift at the show
- Members do not pay admission on any day they are scheduled to volunteer at the show
- All members and local dignitaries are invited to the opening ceremony on September 22nd at 7:00 pm. See all the quilts and have first chance to shop at the boutique. (Yay!)
- For more information or questions about what is required for each task, feel free to contact Krista at krisgarber@aol.com

CHALLENGE QUILTS

Please complete your Challenge Quilts as soon as you can. They will be collected at the June and September meetings and there will be a show and tell of entries for the members. If you can not make either of these meetings, please make drop off arrangements with Heather closer to September.

Each entry must have a minimum two-inch hanging sleeve and a label on the back with the name of the piece, maker, quilter, pattern credits and date.

Any questions or challenge guidelines can be directed to Heather Sanft hmsanft@gmail.com or 902 644-2415.

ADVERTISING

The post cards and posters are at the printers and will be available to members at the June meeting. It is very important that we get the word out this summer. We would like to have posters or postcards in the Atlantic Canada Quilt shops. If you are travelling in Atlantic Canada this summer and would be willing to drop off advertising materials, please get in touch with Gail Stryde at gstryde@hotmail.com. We have also compiled a list of businesses in Halifax and South Shore areas where post cards and posters will need to be distributed. If you are willing to help with this, Gail Stryde would love to hear from you.

Executive Committee Nominations

Nominations are open for 2022-23. Members of the Executive Committee serve two-year terms, which are staggered so that not all positions renew in the same year. Committee members may offer to serve more than one term. Executive Committee meetings are held on the third Friday of the month. Most meetings are held via Zoom, but nominees must be willing to meet in person twice a year.

We are still seeking nominations for the following positions:

Vice-President
Newsletter Editor
Library

If you are interested in putting your name forth for nomination to one of these positions, please email Past President Pam Wells at pammied01@gmail.com. An update will be provided in May on expressions of interest in these positions.

Thank you, Anna

At the April meeting, Guild members honoured founding member Anna Davison with an early life membership. "We hope this will enable Anna to keep in touch and attend virtual events following her move out of NS," said Krista Garber, when presenting the award. Since 1991, Anna has contributed to the Guild in many ways. She was the catalyst behind starting workshops and Cuddle Quilt Day, along with being a frequent teacher and a generous contributor of time and expertise to Guild events. We send our gratitude and good wishes with Anna as she embarks on this new adventure.

Looking for a Volunteer Long Arm Quilter

Below is a picture of a "Double Pinwheel" quilt (68 x 84") that Isabel Fancy has pieced. It was a kit that was donated to me for the Guild, and I gave it to Isabel to sew together as I knew she would enjoy making it. Now we are looking for someone who does machine quilting who would donate their skills and time to quilt this quilt for the Guild. It hasn't been decided yet where the quilt will go whether it be donated to a charity or whether we sell it at the quilt show. If someone would like to quilt it for us, Isabel has the backing and binding for the quilt and the batting will be provided by the Guild. Please contact Isabel at IAF@eastlink.ca to arrange for pickup.

Thanks
Barb

Quilt Game

I have 3 games this month!!! Thanks to Jill for giving me the idea for the first one. Please have your submissions to me at mbqgnewsletter@gmail.com before the May meeting.

What is the best piece of quilting advice you ever received? Each person who sends in an answer gets their name into the draw for a prize. I will compile a list and share in the June Newsletter. Thanks to Alicia Anderson for the prize donation.

Game 2

I have a prize (project box) for the person who sends me the most quilt terms/tools/patterns using the letters in "May". Thanks to Lynne Hannah for the prize donation.
